At Greensboro last midnight Dr. J. B. Matthews, a well-known physician, was arrested on the charge of murdering his wife; it is alleged he poisoned her under very sensational circumstances—It is certain that 49 lives and $7,000,000 of property were lost in the storm this week on the Great Lakes; it is also pretty certain that another steamer is lost with 19 additional souls——It is reported at St. Petersburg that 5,000 were killed on both sides in the battle of Sebastopol between mutineers and loyal troops last Wednesday; there are other rumors of sedition and disloyalty in the army, only the Cossacks being counted as loyal; even 250 of the Emperor's personal guard have been arrested; it is evident that Witte's enemies are plotting for his overthrow ——The Meriwether court-martial was concluded yesterday, but the findings were not given out——Nine men were burned to death yesterday on a logging boat near Mobile, Ala.——Four or five boxes from as many election districts were recounted in New York yesterday, showing a gain or 17 for Hearst. ——In a heavy sea off the Massachusetts coats Thursday night a barge foundered and the captain, his wife and two of the crew were drowned ——New York markets: Money on sall strong at 6 to 15 per cent.; closing bid 6, offered at 7; sport cotton steady, 11.65; flour dull, but steady; wheat irregular, No. 2., red, 95, elevator; corn steady, No. 2, 59 1-2 elevator; oats steady, mixed 36; turpentine dull; rosin nominal, strained common to good, $3.25.

Respectfully dedicated to Gov. "Jeff" Davis, of Arkansas: "He who fights and runs away may live to fight another day."

Senator Platt and Odell read in the papers after the elections that "the day of the boss has passed." Then they were summoned to Washington to give an account of their bad stewardship to President Roosevelt who failed to be knocked out by the elections.

Senators Cullom, Dolliver, Foraker and Elkins propose to introduce railroad rate bills, but President Roosevelt has notified the train dispatcher that the Esch-Townsend bill has the right of way. The President's side tracks may not be able to hold all of those railroad bills.

The Charlotte Observer announces the arrival in Charlotte of some well known Northern yarn men. Those Charlotte fishermen who come down to the coast to do their fishing are warned that it would be a little out of place to hunt up those Northerners to exchange yarns.

The Meriwether court martial at the Naval Academy ought to have been wound up in two days. One in which to take testimony, and one in which to consider the evidence and write out a severe rasping for the Academy authorities for not putting a stop to the brutal fights which seem to be the custom among the cadets.

Dr. Charles Lee Smith, who was inaugurated as president of Mercer University, Georgia, a few days ago, is a native of Durham, N. C. He graduated at Wake Forest College, North Carolina's superior Baptist College, and subsequently took his degree at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore. North Carolina seems to be the mother of presidents for big educational institutions.

Rev. P. H. Whisner, D. D., is secretary of the Board of Church Extension for the M. E. Church, South, and he addresed the conference in the interest of that work.

Bishop Wilson and Dr. Whisner were both members of the Baltimore conference when elected to their present position in the church, and are strong friends. At the close of Dr. Whisner's address Biship Wilson spoke of their long friendship, and of the efficient work of Dr. Whisner, and of his liberality and devotion to the church and her every interest.

The next speaker before the conference was Z. Hinohara, of Japan, who for several years has been a student at Trinity College, but who returns to Japan as a minister of the gospel within the next few months. He spoke interestingly and earnestly from his own experience, referring to the work of the church in that country.

Rev. W. R. Lambert, missionary secretary of the church, spoke to the conference in the interest of the cause of missions. He said the church had reason to be especially thankful for three things with regard to missions during the past year, First, for the great religious awakening in Korea; second, for the increase in membership; third, for the great financial increase for the cause of missions.

Rev. Dr. H. M. DuBose, editor of the Epworth, Era, was introduced and addressed the Conference; also, Rev. P. L. Girton, of Charleston, S. C., and Rev. W. L. Grissom.

Upon report of the Committee on Conference Relations, Revs. W. R. Townsend, M. H. Tuttle, J. O. Guthrie and W. F. Jones were admitted as supernumerarles.

The Thanksgiving sermon of Bishop Wilson in the Methodist church and that of Rev. Dr. Kilgo, in the Baptist church, are spoken of in the highest terms by those who were privileged to hear either of them. Your correspondent was sick and did not hear either discourse. Dr. J. C. Kilgo, delivered a lecture at the Baptist church to young preachers on "The Preacher as a Student" and on Friday he will deliver a lecture on "The Preacher As a Worker."

The conference Board of Mission held their annual session at 7:30 P. M., Rev. R. F. Bumpass, president of the Board, presiding. Bishop Wilson and Rev. Dr. Lambeth addressed the congregation.

At the close of the addresses, a collection of $290 was taken for missions, which overpays the assesment on the entire conference for Foreign and Domestic missions.

MISS ELIZA H. OWEN DEAD.

Member of Distinguished Family—Interment in Oakdale Cemetery.

Miss Eliza H. Owen passed away at the home of her niece, Mrs. H. H. Smith, No. 212 North Front street, this city, at 3:40 o'clock Thursday morning. She had reached the advanced age of 81 years and while her death was not expected, it came as a sad realization to the family and many friends in this city. Miss Owen was a daughter of the late General James Owen, of Bladen county, and a niece of Governor John Owen, names distinguished in North Carolina history and of Revolutionary fame, Gen. Owen and Governor Owen being sons of General Thomas Owen, of the Revolution. Governor Owen was president in 1840 of the Whig Convention in Harrisburg, Pa., and declined the nomination of vice president of the United States. Had it been accepted, his election would have been certain with that of President William Henry Harrison and he would have succeeded to the presidency as it afterwards developed.

Miss Owen who passed away Thursday leaves only her niece, Mrs. Smith, but she has a number of grandnieces and grandnephews as follows: Miss Mary Owen, Mrs. Franc H. Jones and Mr. Owen Graham, of Charlotte, Prof. Edw. Kidder Graham, of Chapel Hill, and Miss Margaret D. Smith and Messrs. Harry N., Owen and LeRoy Smith, of this city. Mrs. Jones is in the city from Charlotte.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the First Presbyterian Church, the pastor, Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., conducting the service.

The interment was in Oakdale Cemetery, and the pallbearers were Col. John D. Taylor, Dr. W. H. J. Bellamy, Capt. Alvis Walker and Junius Davis, Esq., honorary; and Col. Walker Taylor, Capt. R. W. Price and Messrs. W. E. Worth, C. W. Worth, W. M. Cumming and James H. Chadbourn, active.

HAVE TRUCKING TEST FARM.

Fennell Place on Turnpike Purchased by MacRae Interests.

The Carolina Real Estate Trust Company, one of the interests of Hugh MacRae & Co., has purchased from Mr. H. L. Fennell, 71 2-5 acres of land, the same being what is known as the "H. L. Fennell Place," adjoining the Winter Park Gardens property and lying along the line of the Wrightsville turnpike and the C. R., L. & P. Co. right of way. The consideration is not given in the deed, but it is understood to have been considerably more than $3,000. The place adjoins the test farm of Mr. MacRae and it is understood that the test farm in the future will include both places and that some valuable experiments in trucking and gardening will be undertaken. Mr. George Thomas, Jr., has had charge of the test farm during the past year.

Married Thanksgiving Evening.

Thanksgiving night at the residence of the bride's father, No. 709 Orange street, Miss Sarah Holmes, the attractive young daughter of Mr. J. M. Holmes, and Mr. Joseph M. Tilley were quietly married in the presence of a few friends, the Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Following the ceremony an elaborate reception was given and a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Tilley will be at home in this city where they have a host of friends.

Big Lettuce Shipments.

It is learned that on Thursday Mr. D. N. Chadwick shipped from his fine truck farm in East Wilmington three solid car-loads of lettuce. This is, perhaps, the largest of any individual shipment made from this or any other territory.

SHOT HIS RELATIVE

Pender County Man Fired Upon Wilmington Cousin Mistaken for Burglar

MAY LOSE HAND AS RESULT

Clarence Ormsby Badly Wounded by Titus Corbett, near Ashton, on Thanksgiving Eve—At the Hospital in This City.

Having been mistaken for a burglar, Mr. Clarence Ormsby, 25 years old, a painter in the railroad shops in this city, was shot and seriously wounded the night before Thanksgiving at the home of his cousin, Mr. Titus Corbett, four miles from Ashton, on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad. Mr. Ormsby's left hand was almost torn off by a load of shot discharged from the gun of Mr. Corbett and the young man is now at the James Walker Memorial Hospital in this city, in great danger of losing a part of his arm. Last night, however, he was resting very well and Dr. Bulluck, who is attending him, hopes that amputation will not be necessary.

Mr. Ormsby, Deputy Sheriff W. H. Cox and other hunters went up to Ashton on the 6:50 train Wednesday evening, expecting to remain over night with friends and go gunning on Thanksgiving. They took a conveyance at Ashton after dark and drove four miles in the country. A mile this side of Mr. Corbett's house, Deputy Cox and other members left Mr. Ormsby and he walked on to the residence of his cousin. It was then pretty late and Mr. Corbett not knowing of the coming of his relative from Wilmington, had retired early expecting to come himself early Thanksviging morning to the city. Mr. Ormsby carried his gun and a lot of shells and fired twice just before he reached the house to acquaint his cousin of his approach. Mr. Corbett, however, was sound asleep and the first he heard was a cry from Mr. Ormsby to look out for the dogs. Mr. Ormsby is a little deaf and didn't hear Mr. Corbett call out from within, "Who's there?" The young man was close up to the door, with his gun across his arm, as Mr. Corbett opened up to see what was the trouble. It was dark and he couldn't see Mr. Ormby, but as the door was thrown open the gun of the latter swung in where Mr. Corbett could see it. The man in the house was certain it was some one who would do him harm, drew his own shot gun and fired. His mistake was not discovered until Mr. Ormsby yelled out "You've shot me." Three shot grazed the young man's stomach but the greater part of the load of heavy lead tore away big pieces of flesh and bone from his hand and forearm.

Dr. E. Pender Porter, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is visiting his father at Rocky Point, and Dr. Williams, of Rocky Point, came over and addressed Mr. Ormby's wound and advised that he be sent to the hospital. He arrived Thursday morning, and is under the care of Dr. Bulluck.

TRAVELLERS TO BANQUET.

Post G, of T. P. A. Arranged for Entertainment Next Week.

Post G, of the Travellers' Protective Association met last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, on Princess street, President T. H. Thompson in the chair, and Mr. T. D. Love prosent as secretary. The president reported that the South Carolina Post had been successful in securing the concession of an additional 50 pounds of baggage and referred the matter of a similar concession on roads in this State to the Railroad Committee of Post G.

The most important feature of the meeting was the decision to have an oyster roast and social session at Lumina on Saturday night, December 9th. Members of the post may bring along their lady friends or members of their family and an evening of rare enjoyment is expected. The party will go down on a special car leaving the Princess street junction about 8 o'clock. There will be music and other attractive features for the guests.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 1.—Corresponding Secretary Livingston Johnson, of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, which convenes here, Monday, has completed his report of the work in the State. It will show the convention out of debt and an advance in funds raised during the year for all purposes. The increase for Foreign Mission is about 20 per cent., and nearly an equal advance in Home Missions. The total amount of money raised will be several thousand dollars more than last year when the total for all purposes was about $70,000. The Sunday School work has become about self-supporting. THE NORFOLK GAME.

Wilmington Was Highly Gratified—Those Who Attended.

Wilmington football devotees could not contain themselves at the news from Norfolk Thanksgiving afternoon. An excellent bulletin service was given to the public free of cost by the Southern Bell Telephone Co., and the victory for Carolina was known here quite as early as it was in Norfolk. A large blackboard containing a diagram of the field was posted up in front of the telephone office and hundreds stood and eagerly watched for the result of each down as it was chalked up by Scorer A. F. Land, who received the news fresh from Past Gridiron Crank Adolph Ahrens, at the Wilmington end of the line inside the office.

The Wilmington contingent in Norfolk was large and upon their return yesterday they gave graphic accounts of the victory of the blue and white. Among those who went to see the game were Messrs: W. L. Smith, M. A. Curtis, Geo. G. Lynch, Jos. Armstrong, C. V. Motte, Tom Shepard, Frank Shepard, Gordon Johnson, Matt Meier, Robt. Green, David Chadwick, D. L. Middleton, Benj. Bell, Jr., J. W. Perrin, M. L. Stover, J. A. Fountain, Champ. McD. Davis, W. F. Robertson, F. W. Dick, J. E. Porter, E. B. Council, Meares Harriss, Frank Harriss, Tom Meares, Clarence LeGrand, Milton Gore, Alban Pleasants, King Corbett, Geo. A. Alderman, Herman Davis, Walter Blair, Robert Houston, Ben Houston, F. V. Olver, W. P. Fletcher, J. H. Allensworth, J. B. Myers, J. W. Whitten, W. D. McEachern, John McDougal, Bruce Hall, Irving Bear, G. T. Rawlings, O. A. Setzer, "Skeeter" Burriss, Bryan Newkirk, C. M. The Deadly Toy Pistol.

The Board of Aldermen Monday night will probably pass an ordinance forbidding the sale of the toy pistols which carry the flobert or regular size cartridges. Empie Thompson, 15 years old, was badly shot in the hand and a little son of Capt. W. A. Sanders was similarly wounded last Wednesday. There are a dozen other cases which have stirred the people up and an ordinance to remedy the evil will doubtless be passed without objection.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday Morning, December 2.

CATHOLIC CHURCH AND MARRIAGE.

The marriage of Congressman Kennedy, of Omaha, Neb., last Monday has resulted in a sensation because of the action of Right Rev. Bishop Richard Scannell, of the Nebraksa diocese, Roman Catholic church. The Congressman married Miss Pritchett, a prominent society woman, and as it was known that he had a divorced wife iving, Bishop Scannell on the Sunday before the marriage issued a pastoral forbidding all Catholics to particiipate in the ceremony one way or other. Notwithstanding his warning, a number of Catholics took a prominent part in the wedding, with the result that the Bishop has simply announced that no action by him is necessary, as Catholics who participated in the wedding ceremony or the reception following it ex-communicated themselves from the church by their action in face of the warning issued by him.

Bishop Scannell issued his pastoral because he had heard some Catholics anticipated attending the wedding and he wished to warn his people that Catholicism does not recognize the sanetity of the marriage of any person who has a divorced wife or husband living. Such marriages are regarded as a sin by the church and in issuing his pastoral the Bishop recited clearly the laws of the Catholic church in the matter. He recited that any co-operation of Catholics in any act known to be unlawful was an act of sin, and that any attempt to question it on the grounds of modern usage could not stand because the law of morals never becomes antiquated, and that "the divine prohibition to put asunder those whom God has joined together is as binding today as it was twenty centuries ago."

More attention has been paid to the incident than usual because Catholics who attended the wedding included Mrs. Edward Cudahy, wife of the packing house magnate, and Mrs. MacHamilton, who is rated at more than $1,000,000 in her own name. Miss Hamilton was one of the bridesmaids. The ceremony was conducted by Dr. E. H. Jenks, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Congressman Kennedy is a prominent member. The bride of Congressman Kennedy, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Pritchett, prominent members of Omaha society, is a member of the Episcopal church. None of the members of either Mr. Kennedy's family or his bride's family is a Catholic. Mr. Kennedy's divorced wife is a Christian Scientist.

The action of Bishop Scannell will no doubt arouse interest among all other denominations as to whether or not they view such marriages from the same standpoint as the Bishop, since all churches regard the marriage tie as indissoluble. The incident will also attract wide attention because an anti-divorce convention is soon to meet in Washington to take some steps towards securing uniform divoree laws in all the States, so that the divorce evil can in a measure be remedied. Quite a number of delegates appointed by Governor Glenn, of North Carolina will attend that convention.

The action of Bishop Scannell emphasizes the fact that the remedy for the divorce evil lies largely in the hands of the churches themselves.

Dr. Charles Lee Smith, who was inaugurated as president of Mercer University, Georgia, a few days ago, is a native of Durham, N. C. He graduated at Wake Forest College, North Carolina's superior Baptist College, and subsequently took his degree at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore. North Carolina seems to be the mother of presidents for big educational institutions.

Because a cotton grower was willing to sell his cotton at 11 cents a month ago is no reason why he shouldn't now hold it for 15 cents when circumstances alter his opportunities. The price of short-ribs loose and boxed go up whenever a higher price is wanted by the meat trust, which is satisfied to sell at one price one day but wants more the next day.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Virginia is the name of the fastest battleship and one of the slowest States in the Union.—Houston Post. And yet the battleship which bears the name of Texas was built in Virginia.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

—When you refer to Senator Burton's "term" you ought always to state which one you mean—the one in the Senate or the one in the Penitentiary—Charleston News and Courier.

—To meet the disclosures of perjury, theft, bribery and other crimes in high paces both the bench and the bar must act to prevent the overthrow of real democratic institutions. The arsenals of the law must be searched for effective weapons. The armory of justice must be ransacked for swift procedure. The tide of crime which is now receiving its encouragement from above will swell from the depths beneath unless its exemplars in high places are punished.—New York World.

—The most hopeful aspect of recent revelations is the demonstration of the soundness of that public opinion which is the mysterious dominator of communities. Those who are interested in the psychology of this element of social advance may find much worthy of study in the developments of the day. One phenomenon to be curiously considered is the question as to the degree of heat, so to speak, required for an explosion of the gases which permeate the ground beneath the social structure.—Century Magazine.

—We firmly believe hat the Southern Cotton Growers' Association has been instrumental in affecting the price of cotton, by the decreased acreage and the holding plan chiefly. Yet it seems evident that there cannot be any stability in the price, so long as speculation in futures is lawful. The price took a soar in New York yesterday. Why? Was it shown that there was one less bale in the supply than there was a week ago? Not at all. The rise is ascribed to the change of front of Theodore Price, a professional speculator. Because he, a leader of the bears, deserted their ranks for the bulls, the price went jumping. That evidently was purely the result of speculation, supply and demand having nothing to do with it.—Columbia Record.

TWINKLINGS.

—Judge—"Were you present when the trouble started between the man and his wife?" Witness—"Yessir. I was at deir weddin', ef dat's whut yo' mean, sah."—Philadelphia Bullentin.

—"You promised, madame, to obey me when we married, and you've never done it." "Huh! You endowed me, sir, with all your worldly goods, and you never had any.—Baltimore American.

—Mrs. Newed (during the first spat) —Some of my friends say that you only married me for my money. Newed—Well, please don't contradict them, my dear. I don't want them to think I'm a fool.—Chicago Dail News.

—"After all, I guess it doesn't cost much to live in New York." "It may not cost so much to live," replied the man who tried it, "but it cost a lot to make people believe you're living."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

—"Oh George," said Mrs. Newlywed, as her hubby lighted his post-prandial cigar, "I must tell you my little secret. I prepared this dinner all by myself. What did you think of it?" "Well, my dear," replied the mean thing, "the nuts and raisins weren't half bad."—Philadelphia Press.

—Paw Meddlers— What's Jabez want money fer now? Maw Meddlers —Sez he wants ter help hire a coach fer the football team. Paw Meddlers —I won't send a cent. Them football players is all husky young chaps. Let 'em walk. Coach indeed!

—"Do you suppose that any sort of cultivation can change a fruit tree into a nut tree?" asked Cawker. "I should think not," replied Cumso. "But see how the jokers have changed George Washington's cherry tree into a chesnut."—Harper's Bazaar.

—"Yes," said the veteran of '61, "Col. Blank was the coolest man in battle I ever saw, but one day he lost his head." "How was that?" queried the man who was posing as audience. "A cannon ball struck him in the neck," explained the veteran.—Chicago Daily News.

—"Ladies and gentlemen," said the earnest speaker, "we are losing our belief in human nature. Show me one man who has faith in his fellows!" "Speakin' of faith," remarked a quiet individual, domed by a hairless poll, "it ain't dead in all our bosoms yit. I'm just tryin' a new cure for baldness myself.— Philadelphia Public Ledger.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble,, but at last I won, and cured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 1.—The cotton market was quiet all day, sales being estimated at only 200,00 bales. Prices ruled well below the final figures of last Wednesday and the market closed at a net decline of 16 to 17 points. The opening was steady at a decline of 4 to 7 points, which was rather better than due on the Liverpool cables. Private advices attributed the decline abroad to the influence of a crop estimate issued by a New York authority, placing the commercial crop at 11,451,000 bales and the unsettling influence of the Russia situation. There was some demand here through scattering sources, but the market gradually worked off, more as a result of liquidation by recent buyers operating on the theory that a bullish crop estimate had been discounted than through bear pressure, although some of the room traders seemed interested in forcing a decline and succeeded in catching a few stop loss orders toward the close. The market was finally steady in tone, but prices were at the lowest of the session. Ideas as to the probable showing of the government report next Monday now appear to vary greatly, as opinions as to the immediate influence of the report, if it comes as expected, and for the past several days evening up has been the chief feature, rather than any effort to discount individual views of the figures. Estimates as to the probable showing range from about 10,000,000 to 10,400,000 bales.

Receipts cotton at the ports today 50,615 against 63,720 last week and 65,709 last year. For the week estimated 318,00 bales against 391,090 last week and 387,267 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 4,972 bales against 8,395 last year and at Houston 8,749 bales against 11,208 last year.

HOLD TO YOUR INSURANCE.

Chairman Armstrong Issues Thanksgiving Greeting.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 29.—Senator Armstrong, chairman of the committee appointed by the New York Legislature to investigate life insurance, issued a Thanksgiving greeting to-day to policy-holders, advising them not to let their policies lapse. The address continues:

"Policy holders are in a better position now than before the investigation began and their position ought to steadily improve as our inquiry proceeds. The legislation we will recommend will undoubtedly safeguard and strengthen the rights of policy-holdholders, but those who suffer their policies to lapse will lose the benefit of what has been done already as well as what we hope to accomplish."

AMERICAN-ENGLISH CHURCHES.

Archbishop of Canterbury Favors Gathering at Jamestown.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

London, Nov. 29.—Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown (Va.), Exposition Company, had a most satisfactory interview to-day with the Archbishop of Canterbury. Mr. Tucker had been invited by the archbishop to discuss the proposal for the celebration at Jamestown of the ter-centenary of the establishment of the American branch of the English church. The archbishop suggested the formation of an American committee, promising to appoint an English committee to act in conjunction with the Americans in arranging the details of the celebration.

A REGULAR CIRCUS.

Trying to Give a Little Girl Cod Liver Oil.

An interesting incident wsa told in Robert R. Bellamy's drug store the other evening.

A man came in and bought a bottle of Vinol and while waiting for change engaged clerk in conversation.

Said he: "We were told to give our little girl cod liver oil. I bought a bottle and took it home. We had a regular circus trying to get the child to take it. Then it did not agree with her at all, the oil upset her stomach. She did not get any better, so I told the doctor how we had failed, and he at once recommended your Vinol, saying that it contained all of the curative, healing and strengthening properties of cod liver oil without a drop of oil, and that children all love its taste.

"I took home a bottle and we began to give it to our child right away. She said it was delicious and wanted more. Almost from the first dose we noticed a change, and she has gained flesh, strength and appetite and sleeps well every night.

"I don't believe any one should give a delicate child old-fashioned, nauseating cod liver oil or emulsions when Vinol is so delicious, and it will do so much more good than any other tonic. It is simply a wonderful medicine for weak, puny children, and I am recommending it to my friends."

"We guarantee Vinol will make weak, puny children strong, robust and rosy, strengthen and invigorate old people and build up the run down, tired and debilitated as nothing else can. If it fails we willingly return every dollar paid for it." Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Wilmington Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the sympotoms of knidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Wilmington testimony:

B. R. King, the well-known policeman, residing at 706 Wooster street, says: "I had terrible pain in my back which worked around to my side and in my stomach, so bad at times that it laid me up. I used internal medicines and they did not help me. I put on plasters and rubbed with liniment, and none of them helped me at all. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended I got a box of them at Bellamy's drug store. The next day after commencing to use them I noticed relief. Since using two boxes of them I have not had an ache or a pain in my back. It is with pleasure that I add my name to those endorsing the claims made for this remedy."

FORTY-NINE LIVES WERE LOST

Another Steamer Probably Gone Down With Nineteen More—Property Loss is $7,000,000.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 1.—The Journal to-day says one hundred and forty-nine lives have been sacrificed, over seventy ships wrecked and a loss of nearly $7,000,000 has been sustained in the three big storms on the Great Lakes this season. That this is the most disastrous season in the history of shipping on the Lakes is beyond doubt.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—It is believed that the steel steamer Ira H. Owen has been wrecked and that its crew of nineteen men is drowned. The ship was last seen on Tuesday, forty miles from Outer Island in Lake Superior. The Chicago owners have given up all hopes of the vessel. The Owen's captain was Joseph Mulligan, of Buffalo. The latest tidings of the Owen were brought into Ashland, Wiss., to-day by Captain Chamberlain of the steamer Sir William Siemens. Captain Chamberlain reported that at 10 o'clock yesterday when twelve miles east of Michigan island, wreckage apparently from the Owen was seen. Floating in the midst of the wreckage were a number of life preservers marked "S. S. Ira H. Owen."

Captain J. G. Keith, manager of the Owen, to-night admitted that all hope was apparently gone. "I do not understand what has happened to the Owen, he said, She had a cargo of 116,000 bushels of barley which was a light load for the ship."

The Ira H. Owen was built in Cleveland in 1887. She was insured for $100,000. Her cargo of barley was also insured.

WARM WIRELETS.

Governor Montague, of Virginia, will make the principal address at the annual memorial of the Elks st Asheville, N. C., to-morrow.

By order of Justice Amend, of the Supreme Court, four of the five ballot boxes in that number of districts in the late New York election, were recounted yesterday and last night. His attorney says if other districts turn out the same way, Hearst is elected ew on the recount. Judge Alton B. Parker appeared for Mayor McClellan and a heated argument took place over the method of proceedure before the boxes were opened.

In a collision last night in Norfolk harbor between the O. D. side-wheel steamer Mobjack and a gasoline launch as the former was backing out of a slip, the launch was wrecked and it is reported that Capt. Atkins, of a vessel in that port, was drowned. Another captain, the engineer of the launch and a man from Portsmouth, all of them in the smaller craft, had narrow escapes, berescued by the tug proctor. O. D. officials deny that Atkins was drowned but no trace of him has been found.

A Clifton Forge, Va., special says the discovery of a valuable lot of ladies' wearing apparel belonging to Mrs. Burgwyn, of Pittsburg, Pa., in the home of Policeman McGuffin at Covington, who is charged with the theft of $683 in money and $3,000 worth of diamonds, the property of guests at Hot Springs, has added fresh interest to the case. It is said that the wearing apparel among which are several fine Partisian gowns, is valued at $900. The officers will not give out any information concerning the affair. McCuffin is in Jail.

Eleven lives lost and ten shipwrecks Friday constituted the net results of the storm during the past two days on Lake Superior. Of the wrecks those of the steamers Mataafa, Crescent City, Edenborn and LaFayette seem to be total. In addition the Elwood sank in Duluth harbor, the barge Manila in tow of the LaFayette which beached near Two Harbors the steamer W. B. England and the Bransford were stranded while the barges Maderia and Constitution are missing. The loss to shipping in the storm will probably exceed a million dollars.

NINE MEN BURNED TO DEATH

They Were Asleep on Logging Boat Near Mobile, Ala.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Mobile, Ala., December 1.—Nine persons whose names are not yet known, occupying a "pull" boat on Middle river, which runs between the Tensas and Alabama rivers, were burned to death to-day in a fire which destroyed the boat. Sidney Wheat, the negro steward, was the only survivor of the ten men who lived on the craft. Wheat escaped death by being awake owing to illness. The crackling of burning timbers warned him in time and he jumped into the river, escaping just as the boat collapsed. Stewart, and Butt, of Mobile, who owned the boat, say there had been no steam on her for three days. They were at a loss to account for the burning of the vessel.

According to Wheat's statement, the nine men were dumped into a roaring furnace while some of them were asleep. They were roasted. The boat was used by the men who were engaged in getting logs out of the narrow places for rafting purposes. It was constructed something similar to a dredge boat and had a structure for sheltering the machinery and apartments in which the crew and employes lived. In this case those on board the vessel occupied the second story of the structure. The fire had evidently been burning some time when Wheat was awakened. He says he rushed in and yelled to the others to get out as fast as they could as the boat was burning. He does not know whether any of the men heard him. He leaped from the vessel into the river and a moment later the vessel collapsed, precipitating the other men into the blazing hull.

—North Carolina has a law which makes it a punishable offense to point an unloaded gun or pistol at any person. This may be the reason why North Carolina is getting ahead of Virginia in population.—Norfolk Landmark.

FIVE THOUSAND WERE KILLED

Report of Terrible Slaughter on Both Sides at Sebastopol on Wednesday

ENTIRE ARMY IS SUSPECTED

Even Two Hundred and Fifty of Emperor's Personal Guard Arrested —Cossacks Alone Counted Loyal—Against Witte

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 1.—The Novosti says that 5,000 men perished on both sides in the fighting at Sebastopol.

The following dispatch from vice Admiral Choutkin at Sebastopol dated November 30 was given out to-night.

"The revolutionists counted on complete success, assuring the sailors and soldiers that they they could remain loyal servants of the Emperor while presenting their demands and that it was not necessary for them to use violence. By acting together, they were told they could not fail to succeed. Only the ring leaders were acquainted with the real objects for the putting forth of economic pretexts on service bases, the majority of the men believing that arms would not be employed. The crews on board the ships remained loyal. Terrorism, including threats of death, was used to force the workmen of the port to strike. The tempest of war has ceased, but not that of revolution. The Russian people are being led uncomprehendingly into civil war and self destruction."

General Baron Meller Gakomelskie, commander of the seventh army corps at Sebastopol, telegraphs under today's date as follows:

"Armed revolt has ceased. All troops behaved brilliantly and performed their difficult duty devotedly. The number of prisoners exceeds 2,000 Excitement prevails among the inhabitants, especially among the Jews, whom the revolutionary officers insulted and threatened. The conduct of the Brest regiment in the capture of the marine barracks was irreproachable, as was also the service rendered by Bielostsk regiment, the fortress artillery, and other troops."

It develops that during the mutiny at Sebastol the sailors of the volunteer fleet at Odessa and the engineers of the South Western Railway refused to transport troops and artillery to Sebastopol.

The garrison of Tarsgoe— Selo has been reniforced by the Semionovka regiment. Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholavitch, commander of the imperial guard, has decided to send in turn all the other guard regiments to Tsarskoe-Selo.

All Troops Suspected.

St. Petersburg, 2.—2:50 A. M. The Czar's guards arrested at Tsarskoe-Selo Thursday night and Friday morning numbered 250, including 20 officers All kinds of rumors are current, including the assertion that one of the Grand Duke's is involved in the conspiracy against the Emperor but none of them can be verified. It only seems certain that no reliance can be placed even on the guard regiments. Arrested soldiers are seen every day, escorted by their comrades with drawn swords.

St. Petersburg is swarming with [illegible] troops against whom there is no suspicion of disaffection. It is understood that the whole Cossacks forces of the Empire some 450,000 will be mobilized

Count Witte has declined to receive a deputation from the telegraph and postal strikes on the ground that they are violating their duty to the state, but he sent a note to the deputation recommending that the strikers, address themselves to the immediate chiefs.

Two More Regiments Mutiny.

Berlin, December 1.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Eydtkuhnf, on the eastern frontier of Eastern Prussia, says that the eighth regiment of Russia Dragoons in the adjacent town of Walkoweszk, Russian Poland, has been in a state of mutiny since yesterday, threatening death to the officers unless the pay of the men is raised. Troops have been requested from Kevno.

The Lokal Anzeiger also prints a despatch from Warsaw saying that the Fourteenth Regiment of Dragoons at Ostreleka, Russian Poland has mutinied.

Plotting Against Witte.

St. Petersburg, December 1.—The Emperor presded to-day at a meeting of the council of ministers. Much comment has been caused by the Emperors summons to Count Pahlen, a member of the council of the Empire and one of the eldest and most trusted servants of the house of Romanoff who participated in the session, presumably to voice his master's views. Though the step undoubtedly was taken with the full approval of Count Witte it gave rise to the report that the Emperor was losing confidence in, the Premier which was eagerly spread by the latter's enemies in th court party. After the close of the session of the council of ministers an official communication was issued explaining that martial law in Poland having produced the desired effect on the extremists, it had been reduced at the request of General Skallon, Governor General of Poland, who was now holding out the hope that the Poles would participate in the elections for the douma.

MERIWETHER COURT MARTIAL.

Work Completed Yesterday Afternoon But Finding Reserved.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 1.—The court-martial in the case of Midshipman Meriwether, who was tried on the charge of manslaugher for causing the death of Midshipman Branch, in a fist fight, completed its work late this afternoon and adjourned. No information was given to the findings of the court. The proceedings record in the case will be forwarded to the Navy Department for review and the verdict will be announced from there.

CAROLINA DOWNS VIRGINIA.

Thanksgiving Game of Foot Ball at Norfolk.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 30.—Carolina had Virginia played a rattling good game of ball this afternoon and made many good plays, Carolina winning by a score of 17 to 0.

Carolinia's goal was never in the slightest danger, Virginia never getting nearer than the thirty-five yard line. Corolina played straight Yale football, making short, consistent gains, which seemed irresistible so far as the Virginia line was concerned. Their line plunges on fake kicks were well timed and always seemed to make good. The team was well handled by Captain Robinson, and the plays called with skill and judgement. The attendance was 15,000 fully half of whom were supporters of the white and blue.

Caterpillars and Grubs.

It is altogether surprising what caterpillars and grubs can survive and appear to like it. Some mites live on strychnine, eating it with avidity. Professor Attfield tried the same fare on cheese mites, and up to 50 per cent of strychnine they lived and thrived as perhaps only mites can be expected to do. Over 50 per cent of poison they found to be an error of diet and promptly died. There is a sort of caterpillar which lives on magnesia; one wonders vaguely whether a perpetual course of magnesia is not found somewhat enervating. But, then, the caterpillar is a being wholly depraved, which nothing can kill. The grub of the fur moth particularly is an indiscriminate feeder, liking wool as readily as fur and a horse's hide as well as either, and will dine heartily on such poetic fare as butterflies' wings. And it is destruction personified, taking a wanton pleasure in cutting off a multitude of hairs more than it can possibly require, and nothing seemingly can kill it. Turpentine, sea salt, tobacco and sulphur fumes—these "remedies" only drive it away, that is all, as the passengers in Hans Andersen's coach used a sprig of myrtle to drive away the flies.—London Globe.

Odd Old Laws.

In an old set of laws of the Choctaw Nation there is a clause which relates to the killing of witches. For witchcraft the penalty was death, and for alleging oneself to be a witch or for saying that any other person was one was punishable by sixty lashes on the bare back.

Another declared that no doctor could take money or any of the belongings of a patient he treated if the patient died. If the patient were raised up from a sick bed the doctor could accept what was offered to him, and if nothing was offered, then he could take in goods what was his just compensation.

In 1834 the Choctaw council passed an act which made a person who bargained to sell any of the Choctaw land a traitor and punishable by death. Any white man who encouraged such action was deported. An Indian who sold or disposed of land either to individuals or to the United States in toto should be considered a traitor and shot on conviction. This was just preceding the beginning of the work of the Dawes commission.

Animal and Plant Allies.

An interesting instance of the manner in which insects sometimes assist the growth of plants is furnished by the history of a climbing plant which grows in the Philippines. At an early stage in its career the plant, which, like other plants, begins to grow from the ground, severs its connection with the soil and thenceforward lives with its roots attached to dead bamboo canes. It develops, in addition to other leaves, certain pitcher shaped leaves, into the cups of which it sends a second set of roots. A species of small black ant frequents the pitchers and incidentally carries into them minute fragments of decaying wood and leaf mold, from which the roots derive a constant supply of food for the support of the plant.

England's Milk Bill.

The laborer, it seems, is content with 5 gallons of milk, 9 pounds of cheese and 15 pounds of butter in the twelve months. Artisans and mechanics have 12 gallons of milk, 11 pounds of cheese and the same quantity of butter. Each member of the upper class, however, drinks on an average 31 gallons of milk in a year, eats 10½ pounds of cheese and 41 pounds of butter. A member of the upper class drinks rather more than six times as much milk as a laborer, eats just a little more cheese and uses three times as much butter.

Old Laws of Scotland.

On the statute book of Scotland is still an act passed in 1825 ordering that "na man play futeball," because it is "esteemed to be unprofitable sport for the common gude of the realme and defense thereof." There is also a statute against alien immigration, passed in 1426, and authorizing "all his majesty's subjects" to "take, apprehend, imprison and execute to death the said Egiptians (gypsies), either men or women."

Probably It Would.

In a Sunday school the class was under a question on the sacraments. The sacrament of matrimony was taken up, and a seven-year-old startled her teacher when replying to a question as to the necessity for this sacrament by answering: "No. Matrimony is not necessary to salvation, but should a favorable opportunity afford it would be sinful to neglect it."

Unfair.

"I s'pose it's all right," said Mr. Newrich. "But it doesn't seem fair."

"What doesn't seem fair?"

"For Matilda to scold because I want to eat dinner in my shirt sleeves. I don't make any fuss about her party dresses, an' they haven't any sleeves at all."

Forgiveness.

Little five-year-old Edith was taken to a dentist, who removed an aching tooth. That evening at prayers her mother was surprised to hear her say, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our dentists."

Cynical.

"Why," said the sweet girl, "do they say that love is of the heart?"

"To show," said the old bachelor—"to show that the brains have nothing to do with it."

Every one has to clap his hands in applause when he doesn't mean it, but it is a pleasing sort of hypocrisy.—Atchison Globe.

DOCTOR CHARGED WITH WIFE MURDER

Sensational Arrest By Coroner Turner in Greensboro, N. C., Last Midnight

DR. J. B. MATTHEWS THE MAN

Alleged That He Administered Poison Injected Morphine Into Dying Woman While He Knelt as if in Prayer.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Greensboro, N. C., Dec. 1.—Dr. J. B. Matthews, a well known physician, was arrested here at midnight on a warrant charging him with the murder of his wife, who died to-night after suffering excruciating agony for more than twelve hours. The warrant was issued by Mayor Murphy. Her death, according to Dr. J. P. Turner, the coroner, who was called to her bedside, resulted from a dose of strychnine, followed by a portion of morphine, which Coroner Turner alleges was administered to the woman by her husband. Dr. Matthews maintains that while he prescribed for his wife, he did so in the hope of alleviating her pain.

Coroner Turner, who swore out the warrant against Dr. Matthews, makes sensational charges against Dr. Matthews, in connection with the scenes in the dying woman's room.

Dr. Turner alleges that after suffering for hours, the dying woman directed her ten-year-old son to seek another physician, her husband, according to the coroner's story, having refused to summons one. Dr. Turner, who was the first to reach the stricken woman's bedside, diagnosed the case as one of poisoning and at once administered antidotes, which failed to have the desired effect, as the end approached. Dr. Turner alleges, the husband entered the wife's bedroom and asked Dr. Turner if he might kneel at the bedside and pray with his wife, requesting Dr. Turner meantime to leave the room, which Dr. Turner refused to do. Dr. Matthews knelt at her bedside and clasping one of her hands in his, prayed in a voice plainly audible throughout the room. Continuing, Dr. Turner says he discovered his patient was writing in pain, and approaching the bed, he threw back the coverlid and charges that he discovered a hypodermic syringe had been plunged into the woman's leg. He says he seized the syringe and ordered Matthews from the room. Mrs. Matthews died a few moments later and the coroner's jury was notified. Dr. Matthews and his wife are well known here. Matthews was locked up shortly after midnight stoutly insisting that he had no intention of taking his wife's life.

TABLE TIPPING.

An Experience of Andrew Lang That Is a Puzzle to Him.

I was once laying my hands alone on a little table which spun about the room. No doubt I moved it, but I did so "automatically." I did not consciously exert any force. I said, "Ask the table a question," and a lady remarked, "Where are the watches?" The table then tilted. The others used the alphabet in the ordinary way. I did not know what was tilted out, but they told me that the message was, "The watches are in Frank's pocket in the children's room." I asked, "What watches?" and the lady said, "I gave two to Frank to take to the watchmaker, and he does not know what became of them."

"No more do I," I said and thought no more about it. Frank was a boy, a nephew of the lady. I scarcely knew him by sight. Two months later when I was in France Frank's father, who had been present at the table tilting, wrote to tell me that I "was the devil!" The watches had just been found in an old greatcoat of Frank's in a drawer in the children's room, which was not a room in the house where the table was so well inspired. Nothing else of the sort ever happened to me. It was an "automatism." I did not know what the table "said" till I was told, and of the watches I knew nothing at all. I simply do not understand the case. But "spirits" did not even pretend to be mixed up in it. The least inconceivable psychic explanation is that Frank, who was at school, "wired" on to me without knowing it a fact which he had forgotten and that I without knowing it made the table tilt out the answer.

Frank at that time was a queer, visionary boy, "a sensitive," but to do all this was rather out of his line. The skeptical theory would be that Frank, having heard the story and accidentally come upon the lost watches, put them in the place where the table said they were, "and the same with intent to deceive." But I did not even know that there was a room in his father's house called "the children's room."—Andrew Lang in Harper's Magazine.

Names of Horses.

The practice of naming horses after eminent persons is common in England and France, but in Russia it is considered disrespectful by some judges of manners. A Russian sportsman has christened a promising filly Elenora Duse as a mark of his esteem for the celebrated actress. He is severely rebuked in the Russian papers. "If this should be tolerated," they say, "we shall be having horses called after Tolstoi and other national worthies. Nay, Kuropatkin himself will be saddled or turned out to grass. The censor ought to stop the abuse of the names of Christians. Is the holy synod asleep?" A Russian may call his dog Caesar or Pompey, for they were pagans, and their memory is not revered by members of the Orthodox church. But suppose some reckless subject of the czar should call his horse Pobiedonostzeff. What will the holy synod say then?—London Chronicle.

His View of It.

"Talking about music," said Krankleigh, "there goes a man with a splendid ear for it."

"Nonsense," replied his musical friend. "He's stone deaf."

"Exactly."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, is the best cure made." TEMPTATION TO DRINK ENTIRELY BANISHED

What Keeley Treatment at Greensboro Did for Hard Drnker—Now Healthy and Happay.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

Five years ago I took the Keeley Treatment at your Institute. I have been benefited so much I wish to say a few words of praise, as I never tire of telling the good it did me. My age now is forty-four years. I had been a constant drinker for twenty-seven years. I can positively say I loved it as well as any person that ever took a drink, and to-day I can safely say I have no desire for a drink or anything that contains alcohol. It is no trouble for me to resist and there is no temptation now for me even to take a drink with the best friends I have on earth. If I had not taken your treatment when I did, I feel sure I could not have lived three months longer. For months before I took your treatment I drank most every day from three to four quarts of whiskey. At the time I left home to take the Keeley Treatment I weighed 180 pounds, and now to-day I weigh 215 pounds. I have enjoyed the best of health in all my life since five years ago, after taking your treatment. I can recommend your treatment to do all it claims to do; make a new man out of one that has made a slave of himself. I never was treated any better in my life than I was by the officers, physician and manager. I have not only helped others by advising them to go but I have carried five patients there myself. If I had not been benefited myself I would not have taken any one else there. I hope this may help some poor man on to new life, health and happiness. E. A. BLOXOM.

The Most Powerful Searchlight.

The most powerful searchlight ever designed or built was recently finished at the famous Schuckert works at Nuremberg, Germany, where the manufacture of giant searchlights has been made a specialty.

Some idea of the illuminating power of the great instrument may be gained from the fact that if it were possible to set it upon a hill or tower 300 feet high its rays could be detected from a distance of nearly eighty-five miles. Its candle power, at 316,000,000, is so great as to be almost incomprehensible in figures. When the searchlight for the Helgoland lighthouse was turned out at the Schuckert works some time ago it was considered a wonder, but its candle power is only 10,000,000.

Negotiations are in progress for securing this enormous instrument for one of the United States lighthouses.

The Leap Year Letter.

The "leap year letter" is written with a tiny bow of ribbon accompanying every line. Thus:

If for me your love is true
Send me back this bow of blue.
If you have another fellow
Just send back this bow of yellow.
If of me you often think
Do inclose the knot of pink!
If your jealousy is keen
Remember 'tis the bow of green.
If you care to see me no more
Send back the little lilac bow.
If on the contrary your love's aglow
Pin on a note this crimson bow.

New Use For Trolley Transfers.

A lawyer's clerk in Brooklyn has found an entirely new use for trolley transfers. His work necessitates a lot of car rides, and at the end of the first week his expense account for transportation seemed pretty large. His employer paid it doubtfully, and the next week the clerk to prove his honesty got a transfer ticket every time he boarded a car. He didn't use any of them, but filed them away in his pocket until pay day, when he turned them in to his boss as vouchers. His expense bill hasn't been questioned since.

Poverty In Russia.

The poverty of Russian peasants is instanced by recent figures showing that, notwithstanding the long nights, the average use of the cheapest kind of crude petroleum is only four or five quarts per head in a year. Much time for work is thus wasted. Many peasants remain in bed from 4 in the afternoon till 8 in the morning.

The Sea Wolf.

A sea wolf caught by salmon fishers of the Esk in Montrose, Scotland, is described as follows: "Its mouth measured seventeen and one-half inches across and when fully opened the circumference was fifty-two inches. The lungs were like a white parasol cut in two. In the middle of the fish were two 'paws' remarkably like hands, the five fingers being attached by a fine membrane. The sea wolf's habit is to lie at the bottom of the water, with open mouth, manipulating two codlike flappers to attract its prey. These flappers are fixed over its head. On being cut open the wolf's stomach was found to contain a sea gull, which had been swallowed whole. As soon as the bird was removed the spectators were even more astonished to find a big eel, which was still alive."

He Knew.

A popular New York actor loves to tell this story of a very precocious nephew of his:

He had arrived at the house of his sister just about the time all the children were getting ready to go to school. After a short time the little boy came in the room to bid his uncle goodby, when his mother said to him:

"Now, Charles, please tell your uncle what you are going to learn at school today."

The child replied:

"Why, mamma, if I knew what would be the use of my going to school at all?"—Philadelphia Press.

Wanted a Pleasant Expression.

Mr. Grumps—Good morning. Do you take pictures by the instantaneous process?

Photographer—Yes, sir.

Mr. Grumps—Well, this is Mrs. Grumps, my wife, you know. I want her picture taken.

Photographer—Certainly. But are you particular about having it instantaneous?

Mr. Grumps—Of course. When you get things ready tell her to look pleasant and then snap off the machine before the expression fades away. You've gotter be quicker'n lightning.—New York Weekly.

Time's Softening Influence.

Lawyer—Do you want a trial right away or would you rather postpone it a few weeks?

Prisoner—I guess I'll need a few weeks in which to rehearse that story you told me to tell often enough so I'll get to believe it. Also I want to let the memory of my guilt fade out a little so I can make a better witness for myself. —Baltimore American.
